TOILET SOAP and PERFUME.

I do not believe it would be any freer under free coinage to you than it is now. There would be just one way for the workingman to get it, and that would be to sell his products. There would be just one way for the farmer to get it, and that would be to sell his products. There would be just one way for the merchant to get it—the old-fashioned way—which would be to sell his goods over his counter and give something for the money he gets. That is the only way you could get it if we coined all the silver of the world. Besides, did it ever occur to you that money does not make work? Work makes money. (Great applause.) There is just as much money in this country to-day as there was from 1870 to 1880, and more. But what is the trouble? (Cries of "No work!" "No work!") Yes, no work: it is work that puts money into circulation. Money does not want to be idle any more than labor wants to be idle. The man who has money wants that money to be earning something, and the only reason he does not put it out is because he is afraid that he will never get it back, or get it back in a depreciated currency. And when he does not put it out and it does not circulate, then there is no work. When you have idle men and idle money, distress and suffering prevail.

Now, I do not know what you think about it, but I think you cannot have money too good. (Applause.) When a miner has performed a week's work—the his performed a full week's work—the his performed a full week's work and received his week's pay, that week's pay represents the value of his labor for six days, does it not? Well, now, does not he want the money so received to be the best in the world? (Great applause.) Does he not want that which represents his six days' work to have as much purchasing power as any money anywhere? (Cries of "Yes!") And when you have received döllars worth 100 cents in purchasing power, you want to know that they will not lose, but keep that 100-cents' worth of purchasing power work and opportunity to earn it through the minis, but through the min UNION VETERANS APPROVE IT.

MR. BYNUM'S CHEERFUL VIEW.

THE STATES OF THE MIDDLE WEST, INCLUDING KENTUCKY, ARE SAFE FOR M'KINLEY.

Indianapolis, Oct. 12.-W. D. Bynum, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, takes a far This, he says, is based on returns ed from the gold Democratic workers in the Middle West. Mr. Bynum insists that the only uncertainty in this campaign is as to how the old-line Democrats will vote. The Sound Money Demo-cratic organization, he says, is the only source of correct information which led him to announce last evening that Illinois. Wiscensin and Iowa can be placed in the McKinley column.

"Republicans are claiming Michigan and Indiana by $1,000," he said, "but I should place the pluralities in these two States at 10,000. Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin are undoubtedly safe for McKinley. I consider Kansas and Nebraska still doubtful, but the indications point to a victory in both for McKinley. We are fighting just as, hard in Kansas and Nebraska as in Indiana and Michigan.

"Kentucky I consider beyond all question as going for McKinley. The Palmer and Buckner ticket will poll its largest vote in Kentucky."

BRYAN'S NOMINATION CUT AND DRIED.

GENERAL PALMER SAYS THE CHICAGO CONVEN-

TION CARRIED OUT A PREARRANGED

Detroit, Oct. 12.-Gererals Palmer and Buckner, the candidates of the National Democracy for President and Vice-President respectively, delivered ad-dresses before an audience of 2,500 persons at the Auditorium here this afternoon. Both speakers were warmly welcomed, General Buckner being received with especial enthusiasm. Many prominent local Democrats who believe in the gold standard occupied seats on the stage, and Postmaster John Euright acted as chairman. Each candidate spoke for about an hour, and was frequently interrupted by applause. General Palmer was the first speaker. He said, in opening, that he had been accustomed to atcking Presidential candidates, but he was now compelled to be decorous and decent. He said that he and General Buckner represented in some decree a restored Union, and that the principles they represented were those for a united nationality and patriotism. His party was the representative of pure Democratic principles. The Convention at Chicago, which called itself Democratic, had no other claim than that it claimed to be Democratic, other claim than that it claimed to be Democratic. It had been controlled by influences entirely strange to the Democratic party, he said, and charged that there had been a distinct understanding among the baders of the Chicago Convention that the Populist and free-silver parties would nominate Mr.

PALMER EXPECTS TWO MILLION VOTES.

Detroit, Mich. Oct. 12.-General Palmer, the National Democratic candidate for President, in an interview here to-day said that he feels assured that 2,000,000 Democrats will support the National Democratic ticket, and believes that a great old-Democratic ticket, and believes that a great old-time Democratic party will be in the field four years from now.

General Euckner said that the National Demo-cratic ticket will carry Alabama and Florida, and probably Louisiana and parts of Texas.

REED SPEAKS IN UTICA.

HE LOST HIS BAGGAGE ON THE WAY, BUT KEPT HIS WIT AND GOOD SPIRITS.

N. Y., Oct. 12.-Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, got a warm reception from the Republicans of Central New-York in this city to-night. He was the chief speaker at a mass-meeting held in the Opera House. In the trip from New-York to this city his baggage was lost. Notwithstanding this he was in exceedingly good spirits.

in his speech he said the political economy of fifty or one hundred years ago was no longer the political economy of the world. The world had changed, and human society was more complicated. Seventy per cent of the purchasing of the country was in the wage-earners, and the sooner that fact was recognized by the political economist and the sooner it was appreciated by the statesman, the better it would be for the the statesman, the better it would be for the country.

Mr. Reed referred to the life insurance institutions in the State-thirty-seven in number, he said, representing $1,114,000,000. He then went on to show how the beneficiaries and the holders of endowment policies would be affected by the institution of Mr. Bryan's policy, involving $0,000,000 people. Mr. Reed said that in one month after the nomination of Mr. Bryan the Pennsylvania Railroad had lost $1,250,000.

Président M. Woolsey Stryker of Hamilton College also made a telling speech.

WORKERS AT WESTERN HEADQUARTERS.

CHEERING REPORTS STILL COME IN FROM ALL OVER THE NATIONAL BATTLEFIELD.

Chicago, Oct. 12.-There was a large number of callers at Republican headquarters to-day, many of them being speakers from the East, who arrived here yesterday and called to see about their West-ern assignments. The Maine contingent, headed by Congressmen Boutelle and Dingley, had a long consultation in Colonel Hahn's bureau, and announced that speakers will be here this week to enter the Western campaign. MR. BAYARD REPUDIATES BRYANISM.

HE SAYS THAT DEMOCRATS SHOULD VOTE FOR PALMER AND BUCKNER.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 12.-A letter from Ambas sador Bayard to Samuel Bancroft, jr., of this city, is published here to-day, in which Mr. Bayard urges Democrats to refuse to support Bryan and Sewall and says that they should vote for Palmer and Buckner.

Mr. Bayard's letter is in part as follows:

When a citizen, professing himself to be a Democrat, is called upon by many or by few to yield his convictions and assent to the dectrine that Congress has the power and can rightfully exercise it by its legislative flat to create values, and, regardless of their intrinsic or commercial value, to invest one or the other of the earth metals with any arbitrary power as money, and override and alter at legislative will or caprice the ratio of the exchangeability of such metals, regardless of the impairment of the obligation of contracts, his answer should be that such a claim of power is not consistent with a Government of limited powers as defined by our Constitution, but contains the quintessence of tyranny, dishonesty and absolutism, and is destructive of that morality which is essential to the peace and stability of civilized society. It is, in plain words, a proposition to destroy the institution of property and break down every legal defence for its protection.

This one question and its answer sufficiently justify the prompt and absolute refusal of a constitutional Democrat to support, in any degree, the nominees of the Chicago Convention (Messrs, Bryan and Sewall), and the preposterous claims of legislative power contained in their platform under which the credit of the Nation and the peace and order of society would inevitably perish.

When candidates are presented, as are Messrs, McKinley and Hobart, upon a platform promising no abatement of taxation, but an intensification of principles so unjust and wholly out of harmony with the spirit as well as the letter of the charter of our libertles, every Democrat faithful to the principles of his perty can properly refuse to aid the election of candidates are presented upon a clear and unambiguous platform that assures safety to the inhancial honor of our country, to the honest husiness transactions of all its citizens, without discrimination of race, age, sex, occupation or fortune. The personal reputation Mr. Bayard's letter is in part as follows:

A MINNESOTA DEMOCRAT'S VIEWS.

Washington, Oct. 12 (Special).-Among the prom Washington, Oct. 12 (Special).—Among the prominent visitors in Washington at this time is Judge Thomas Wilson, of St. Paul, who was formerly a member of Congress and at one time a candidate for Governor of Minnesota. He is a Democrat, but a stanch advocate of sound money. "This is one of the years." said he, "when, unless every voting precinct is canvassed, no idea can be formed as to what the scenal of the adection will be seen as to what the result of the election will be, as party lines are almost obliterated. Most of the intelli-gent people of Minnesota, who have given the question careful thought, believe the State will go question careful thought, believe the State will go for McKinley with a good majority. If everybody votes for McKinley who says he will, the Ohio man will receive a large majority. I am a great believer in the farmer; there is no duplicity about him, and he means what he says. The well-to-do farmers—end many of them in our State are well-to-do-have not been affected by this free-silver craze. Those who have are largely those who are embarrassed, and, of course, those who are embarrassed, and, of course, those who are Populists are free-silver men now. It is certain that in Minnesota more Democrats have gone over 15 the Republicans than vice versa. I can't say anything about the labor vote, however.

MR. BELMONT AGREES WITH HIS FATHER. Some of the free-silver papers, in criticising Perry Belmont for supporting Palmer and Buck ner, assert that were his father alive—the late August Belmont, who for many years was chair-August Belmont, who for many years was common of the National Democratic Committee—he would have supported the regular Chicago ticket and platform. An examination of two letters, one written to Thomas F. Bayard, on September 15, 1878, and the other to John Sherman—then Secreary of the Treasury—on November 17, 1877, shows this statement of the silverites to be unfounded

In his speech Mr. Bell dwelt forcibly on the fact that at the Bryan re-ception in Chicago the only flags visible were ception in Chicago the only flags visible were three of the red standards of anarchy. Just as Mr. Bell was building up a beautiful rhetorical climax on this point and calling attention to the fact that there were no American flags at that reception, a big, rawbened silver Marylander yelled: "Yes, and there's not one here, either!" Mr. Bell was equal to the occasion, and instantly tapped the lapel of his coat, on which was planed a miniature emblem of the Stars and Stripes, and said: "You are mistaken, my friend; here is one right here." This brought down the house, and Mr. Bell had no further interruption.

DOING VIGOROUS WORK.

PERRY BELMONT, EX-GOVERNOR FLOWER, DE LANCEY NICOLL AND OTHERS TO MAKE A SERIES OF ADDRESSES

The campaign of the Sound Money Democrats, seing conducted from the headquarters, at No. 39 East Twenty-third-st., is of the most vigorous kind. A number of prominent speakers have responded favorably to the request of the Executive Committee of the National Committee to make speeches in the last week of the campaign. Among them are Perry Belmont, ex-Governor Flower, Le Lancey Nicoll and others. Mr. Belmont will visit West Virginia, New-Jersey and parts of this State. De Lancey Nicoll will be asked to go to Virginia, West Virginia and probably the Carolinas, Ex-Governor Waller will make addresses in New-England, and is hoped that ex-Lieutenant-Governor William F. Sheehan will take the stump.

The campaign being made by the State Committee is also energetic. John De Witt Warner, the chairman of the Campaign Committee, gave out statement yesterday in reference to the struggle,

It read in part:

Our Campaign Committee work practically commenced about twelve days ago. The first step taken was the organization of a campaign sub-committee of 150 members—one for each Assembly District. Through this committee and auxiliary sources we proceeded to secure the names of the most efficient and representative Democrats who would undertake the work of organization, and of campaigning in their respective localities. The result is that we are organized for campaign purposes in three-fourths of the election districts of the State. The formation of county committees, meanwhile, has been in progress, and in upward of thirty of the sixty counties of the State we can truthfully say that we are equipped for business. In the other counties our friends are pushing the work with great activity.

We are gratified with the results of our efforts to obtain the names of Democrats who are in full sympathy with the Indianapolis platform and their candidates. We have obtained a provisional enrolment in at least forty counties, and we shall have returns from the other twenty counties within the next ten days. Not only does this enrolment afford a basis for a systematic cenvass, which we expect soon to begin, but it is a valuable medium through which the distribution of literature can be systematically effected.

A LIVELY REPUBLICAN MEETING.

OOD SPEAKING AND MUSIC ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVED AT CHICKERING HALL

There was a lively meeting of the Republicans of the XXVth Assembly District last evening in Chick-ering Hall, at which there was a big roomful of good speaking, entertaining music and genuine en-thusiasm. Congressman John Murray Mitchell presided, and Congressman Lemuel Ely Quigg was the principal speaker of the occasion. Mr. Quigg made an extended address that was full of points, lucidly stated and warmly received. He was interrupted twice by the audible arrival of the Lincoln Pioneer Club of New-York and the Murray Hill Republican Club, but these were not the sort of interruptions to displease a Republican orator.

Four negroes, who called themselves the Standard Quartet, delighted the audience with several songs. One of them was sung to the tune of "The New Bully," the third verse running as follows:

I took a pound of silver down to Chairman Jones, I asked him to exchange it for twenty golden boues You ought to see dat chairman an' hear his grouns. He riz up like a Injun an' swore an awful dash; Says he, 'You go to Sinjun—he handles all the cash,' I wouldn't undertake a thing so rash. Mr. Quigg, at the beginning of his speech, pointed out the fact that the present campaign was a queer one—so queer that nearly all the men who had for years been at the head of the affairs of Tammany were now arrayed on the Republican side. He said that he wished to echo the advice of Bryan to Democrats who couldn't vote for him, when he told them to get into the Republican party, where they belonged. Mr. Quigg then declared that for the lest ten years the Democratic party in the West and South, unknown to Democrats here, had stood for Socialism, had been the organ and the instrument of unrest. 'It has had,' said the speaker, 'the spirit of those who don't love the sunshine because it's too warm, who don't like the shadow because it's too dark, who can't abide the gale because it's too dark, who can't abide the gale because it's too to violent, who cayl' at the zephyr because it's too gentle, who have no memories telling them of the past and no foresight to warn them of the future, who go upon the principle that whatever is is wrong.'

In closing, Mr. Quigg, after demonstrating the fallacy of the cry for cheap money, deprecating the actempt to array class against class, and exposing the sophistry of free trade, urged his audience to vote for sense, for honesty and for protection to themselves and their country.

Senator Coggeshall and Senator Frank D. Pavey followed Mr. Quigg with brief addresses. Others present were Richard Van Cott, Dr. P. H. Murphy, George N. Manchester, James W. Auten and Amasa Thornton.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC GOLD MAN.

HE WOULD NOT BUY FROM ANYBODY WHO RE-LIEVED IN BRYAN AND SILVER.

Thomas Leigh, jr., of Maine, and C. H. Treat, of his city, spoke at yesterday's noon meeting of the Wholesale Drygoods Republican Club. Considerable amusement was caused by the reading of the following letter, which was addressed to the senior member of a New-York house, who has been on the stump for McKinley since the campaign opened: Milwaukee, Wis., October 2, 1886.

Dear Sirs: I received of you some blotters. There is printed on them 16 to 1. Herewith I ask you what you are. You are a Bryan silver man, Is that so? I am sorry that I bought of you. If I had known it before, you are a man for Silver man Bryan, I would not have bought of you. Nobody should buy a red cent's worth of a silver Bryan man. If you want to have better times in selling goods, go and yote for McKinley. If you won't yote for McKinley, stay home, and lay you to bed and sleep—better for you and better for the whole country.

and sleep-better for you and better for the whole country.

Well, my dear sirs, I would shame me myself to walk on the street, if I were such a big foolish person, to go and vote for such Silver man like Bryan is. No, my dear sir, I am over forty-four years in this country. I know Bryanites-humbugs. Bryanites don't be fit to handle such big country like ours is. We need Republican man. He got some brains in his head. Bryanites have heads filled with sand; got no sense enough to handle such big country. Bryanites ruin our good country. They must be kept out of Washington. Hooray for McKinley! Give us answer, and vote for McKinley. That is the stuff.

HARRISON TO MAKE THIRTY SPEECHES.

THE EX-PRESIDENT SAYS HIS CAMPAIGN WORK WILL BE CONFINED TO INDIANA

Indianapolis, Oct. 12.-E. A. Bigelow, of Chicago, called on General Harrison just after noon to-day to ask him to make a political speech in Chicago under the auspices of the Marquette Club. Several other organizations have asked the ex-President to make speeches in Chicago. The Marquette Club, of which General Harrison is a member, hoped to get the lead on the rest by sending a man down here expressly to see and ask him. Shortly after 1 p. m. Mr. Bigelow returned to his hotel much disappointed and sent a telegram back to Chicago stating that General Harrison had informed him stating that General Harrison had informed him that under no circumstances will he go outside of Indiana to make speeches. He said that he had been asked to go into almost every State in the Union, but that he cannot possibly do so. He will devote his entire attention to Indiana, and will make about thirty speeches throughout the State. His timerary has been made out by W. T. Durbin, of the National Republican Committee, who came to Indianapolis last week for the express purpose of conferring with the General on the subject.

THE OUTLOOK IN NEBRASKA.

Washington, Oct. 12 (Specia).-Ex-Senator Paddock, of Nebraska, who arrived in Washington yesfrom that State, left here to-day for New-Regarding the political outlook in Nebraska, Mr. Paddock, who is a careful and shrewd observer, said: "The fight will be a close one, and it is impossible to foretell the result. If the election had been held a few weeks ago Mr. Bryan would have carried the State, but the Republicans have been making a magnificent campaign, and I now believe the State wins, the margin will not be more than 5,000.

Mr. Bryan is highly respected and has a great many friends in his State outside of his party. If Nebraska is carried for McKinley it will be the result of the labor that has been put into the campaign. I am out of politics, and whatever I say is simply my personal opinion. I repeat that if McKinley carries the State the Republicans of Nebraska will be entitled to more credit than any other body of Republicans in this country."

NOTES OF THE CANVASS.

The wholesale millinery trade will be represented in the great McKinley and Hobart business men's parade on October 31 by over a thousand representatives and three bands of music. John L. Baker has been elected marshal and William C. Morris adjutant of this division of the parade. Granville Dailey, of Scarle, Dailey & Co., will command a company of men interested in the millinery and straw goods business. A contingent of the millinery division will wear gray Fedora hats. All will carry canes and wear badges.

William A. Mars was selected yesterday by the West Side Republican Retail Dealers' Sound Money Club as the marshal to lead the West Side bust ness men's parade on October 31. A large banner has been ruised by the club in front of its head-quarters at No. 465 Hudson-st., and last night a meeting under its auspices was held in front of No. 477 Hudson-st. The McKinley Republican Club of the VIth Aswords: "Like others dominated by human selfishees to far as their own interests are concerned."

Laboring men, I want to ask you why it is that every gold bug says that you are selfish and that you are influenced by selfish considerations, while every gold bug pretends to be a philanthropist who simply loves honest money because it will help other people? (Laughter and cheers.) I want to know why it is that these gold bugs are so sorry that everybody else will be influenced by personal interests and so positive that personal interests and so positive that personal interest cannot affect them. (Applause.) Why is it? I will tell you why: If a man believes a thing is good for himself and also good for others, he will admit that it is good for himself. If he thinks a thing good for bimself but bad for others, he will never admit that it is good for himself. (Cheers.) That is the rule that I lay down, and you can examine it and apply it to every-day life. You will find that men never deny that a thing is good for themselves if they also believe it is good for others. It is only when they believe that they prosper by others' adversity that you hear them standing up and denying that they have any pecuniary benefit. (Applause.)

The speaker asked why, if Mr Washburn was "dominated by human selfishness," he objected to paying his employes in 33-cent dollars. He then quoted from a speech by Mr. Washburn in Congress, expressing disappointment at the tariff of 1890. sembly District will hold a rally, followed by a rousing meeting, under the auspices of the McKinley League of the XXXIIId Assembly District, was held at the league headquarters, One-hundred-and-ninth-st. and Third-ave., on Saturday night. The meeting was opened by James Kennedy with a fervent address. Colorel Denison followed with a speech on the silver question, and Joseph Reihilf, the "Boy Orator of Harlem," spoke eloquently of the record of the Republican party, James P. Degnan, candidate for Assembly, also spoke. Similar meetings will be held each Satur-day evening until the close of the campaign.

The Real Estate Sound Money Club will hold a mass-meeting in the auction room of the Real Estate Exchange, in Liberty-st. on Thursday, at noon. The following speakers have accepted invitations and will address the club: General Horace Porter, George H. Yeaman, James L. Wells. Lemuel E. Quigg and Colone: Fordham Morris. Bryan, says:

I see that it is stated in the press reports that I have "bolted" Mr. Bryan, my law partner, now Democratic candidate for President. I have always been and am now a Republican, but no man has a greater admiration for Mr. Bryan than I have, this honesty, integrity and patriotism cannot be questioned. I have not "bolted" Mr. Bryan, and any statement to that effect is untrue.

I wish also to add that the statement in the press of the country to the effect that Mr. Bryan misstated his financial relations to the defunct German National Bank of this city in his New-London, Coam, speech is without foundation and untrue, Mr. Bryan, at the time of the failure of that bank, was not indebted to I in any amount whatever, and the bank held no note bearing his structure. The ladebtedness referred to in the dispatches was my own personal obligation.

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. Disease germs do no harm in a healthy body. A germ is not a big thing, and it is only physical weakness that makes it dangerous. A perfectly strong man big thing, and it is only physical weakness that makes it dangerous. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the bacilli of consumption with impunity. Nature is continually working to throw off any impurities that may come into the body, but if there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood, they quickly fill the whole body. The only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood. That means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists in the digestion of food and puts the digestive organs in a perfect condition. It atimulates the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition. It fills the blood full of healthy red. corpuscles. It purifies and enriches every drop of blood in the whole body and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, its the whole body into a disease.

healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease resisting state.

Nine-tenths of all human aliments come from the same cause—impurity in the blood. Take almost any disease you please and trace the cause of it—you will find it in the blood. Purify and enrich the blood and you remove the cause, and so you cure the disease inevitably and incallibly. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all diseases depending upon poor, impoverished, thin, impure blood. esisting state.

There is no uncertainty about the political sentiment of the employes of Tiffany & Co. the well-known gold and silver smiths of this city. When the employes of the Union Square establishment obtained permission from the firm to float a McKinley and Hobart flag from the building, the news quickly spread to the silver works of the house, in Prince-st. The great factory full of silver workers was not to be outdone in enthusiasm for the cause of Sound Money, and, regardless of their former political affiliations, the several hundred employes sent an almost unanimous petition for a similar permit. The movement in both cases was entirely a spontaneous one among the employes; and, while the firm gave its consent, it in no other way prompted the movement, or encouraged it with a contribution, as the house desired in mo way to influence the political predilection of an employe. Both flags were unfurled on Saturday. The one at Fifteenth-st, and Union Square measures 40x25 feet, and bears the names of McKinley and Hobart. The Prince-st, flag, although not so large, makes up in enthusiasm what it lacks in size. The inscription reads: "McKinley and Hobart. Raised by Tiffany & Co.'s Silver Workers."

"If you know any one that wants to take the bet," wrote the farmer, "let me know immedia 'y." Mr. Danforth would not give the writer's name, and the inference

I am not going to discuss the tariff question, because I am going to discuss the paramount issue of this campaign, made so by three political parties and considered so by Republicans who are afraid to discuss the tariff question instead. (Applause.) But there is a part of this letter which I think you ought to hear, and I am not going to deny you any good thing. (Laughter.) He says: "The aumence will be composed, I presume, very largely of laboring men and wage-earners of a high order. This class of people, like others, dominated by human selfishness so far as their own interest are concerned, probably prefer to receive their wages in dollars worth ioe cents, rather than those worth only 53 cents." POPOCRATIC ALLIANCE IN INDIANA.

POPULISTS FILE AN ELECTORAL TICKET WITH

TEN DEMOCRATIC NAMES ON IT. Indianapolis, Oct. 12 (Special).-The electoral ti of the Populists was filed to-day with Governor Matthews. It contains the names of ten of the regular Democratic electors and five Populist electors, and has been accepted by the Democratic managers. Ti Election Board meets to-morrow to pass upon the certificates. Contrary to all expectation, the Pusionists secured the signature of the chairman of the State Committee, N. H. Motsinger, to the Fusion certifcate, though he had remained firm in the matter of the Middle-of-the-Boad State ticket, which was field last week. Jason Brown, ex-member of Congress and the Democratic elector-at-large, was deposed to make way for the Populist elector. He predicts, however, that the State will go Republican, so that it will semake much difference to Democrats who is on the ticket. In all calculations the Republican managers have concelled that nine-tenths of the Populists would you with the Democrats, and there is apparently seare among Republicans on account of the fusion.

WATSON UNABLE TO SPEAK.

HIS CONTEMPLATED STUMPING TOUR LIKELY TO BE ABANDONED.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 12 (Special).—Advices from Thomson to-day are that Thomas E. Watson is still confined to his room. His physician said that while Mr. Watson was improving his throat was still a man of sores, and that it was doubtful if he could take the stump again during the present campaign. It is learned from prominent Populists that Mr. Waiss intended to make a tour of Kansas and Colorado with the hope of smashing the present fusion arrangements in those States. Mr. Watson was to have been accompanied on the trip by well-known Middle-of-the-Road Populists, who were to take part is the speaking.

would not give the writer's name, and the inference drawn was that he felt a sort of a guardianship over such a guileless individual and would not see him come to harm; but he said for publication with that well-known smile: "There is a man that has the exarage of his convictions. He is a true patriot, but I don't believe that he will get the bet."

Mr. Danforth maintains a cheery air and continues to predict success for the ticket.

"I am very much pleased with the outlook in the State," he said yesterday, "and believe that the free-silver sentiment is growing every hour and will continue to do so to Election Day. The principal fight is in the Middle Western States, and if Bryan succeeds in breaking into this little beit of States he is sure to win." CLOSING PRICES SAN FRANCISCO STOCKS.
